ST. THOMAS DAY OBSERVANCE, FRIDAY, MARCH 7th

This coming Friday, March 7, we will commemorate the feast day of the patron saint of Catholic schools by a special program devoted to the memory of St. Thomas Aquinas.

We will have a guest speaker, Dr. James V. Mullaney, followed by a scholastic disputation among a group of our students.

This program will begin at 10:30 A.M. in the College auditorium. All senior classes are called off for the third and fourth periods on Friday, as are all Philosophy classes throughout the College. The various teachers concerned have been notified by letter to this effect.

You are invited to attend these functions if you should happen to be free during this time.

YOU AND MARRIAGE SERIES

Members of the faculty are reminded that Dr. Patka is the next scheduled speaker in the You and Marriage Series. His talk will be given on Sunday, March 9, next, at 7:45 in the Library Lounge.

Mary Tinley Daly, syndicated columnist of the Washington Catholic Standard will conclude the Series the following Sunday, March 16. (This will be preceded by the President's Reception.)

An audience of over 200 students from the area Colleges have attended the first two lectures presented respectively by Father James T. Brennan of this Archdiocese and Walter F. Zenner, Sociologist at Chestnut Hill College and a member of the Evening Division Faculty. Each talk is followed by a question period which has proved unusually stimulating and informative. A social follows each session of the Series.

LA SALLE - IVY LEAGUE FORUM

Student Council and the Executive Board ever desirous of seeking truth wherever it may be found will present Doctors Naughton and Lukacs in a Forum entitled "La Salle Education vs Ivy League Education" on March 13, at 12:30 P.M. in the College auditorium.

Both speakers will indicate that we have debit and credit points at La Salle. Is the Ivy League superiority a myth? Does the publicity which surrounds the Ivy League stress superficialities? Are we at La Salle superior in educating the average student; in helping every student establish real goals for himself and in giving meaning to existence?

FIRST FRIDAY MASS

Friday, March 7 will be the first Friday of the month. Fourth period classes will end ten minutes early and fifth period classes will begin ten minutes later than the regularly scheduled time. These arrangements are made to allow students to attend the first Friday Mass in the auditorium.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION

The President's reception for faculty members and their wives will take place Sunday, March 16 from 2:00 to 5:00 P.M.

RELIGION AND MENTAL HEALTH

A meeting of the Philadelphia branch of the Academy of Religion and Mental Health will be held at La Salle College in the Library Lounge on March 17 at 8 p.m. The findings of the Nathan Hayward, Jr., Memorial Fund on the Cooperation between Religion and Psychiatry in Philadelphia will be presented and opened for discussion.

The organization is an interdisciplinary and interfaith group which has for its purpose the study of the relationship between religion and mental health. Any member of the faculty who is interested is invited to attend this meeting. Additional information about the Academy is available in the Counseling Center.

4:00 P.M. Mass at Holy Child Church
5:15 P.M. Convocation in the Auditorium

HOUSE FOR RENT

Recently we received a letter from a Realtor concerning a house for rent at 5722 Virginian Road:

"Homes for rent are still difficult to obtain. Fortunately for someone the owner of the above has asked that we offer it "FOR RENT".

This is a beautiful 3 bedroom home, completely and tastefully redecorated, not too far distant from your school. Since some of the school personnel might be in need of such a home, we have taken the liberty of addressing this offering to you, hoping that through your good offices a needy and desirable tenant can be obtained!"
